

John is an Indianapolis radio broadcast veteran with more than 25 years on the air. A world traveler, John has visited nearly 100 countries and all seven continents. He is also an accomplished photographer, with his work published in several Central Indiana publications, including Carmel Magazine, Geist Magazine, and Current in Fishers. John and his wife, Ann Craig-Cinnamon, have participated as artists in several Fishers Arts Council events including Fishers Arts Crawl and Art Gallery at City Hall with exhibitions of their dramatic travel photography. John and Ann have lived in Fishers for seven years.