

Mike has been a resident of Fishers since 2013. He leads sales for a locally owned general contracting firm and is a licensed attorney in the State of Indiana. He and his wife are art enthusiasts and frequently attend art related events in Central Indiana. In his spare time, he paints abstract art and writes novels.